

Purchasing the OREA Standard Forms

Before you can purchase the OREA Standard Forms, you require an Advanced User Access (AUA)* account, and a lawyer to whom the OREA forms will be associated.

 Note: As required by OREA, each lawyer at a firm who would like to use the OREA forms is required to purchase a license.

To Sign up for an Advanced User Access Account

As part of the AUA account setup, a representative of the firm will have to agree to the LDD Web Services Subscription Agreement. The Account Administrator will add authorized lawyers and system users.

- To sign up for an AUA account, click _____. After you generate and fax the LDD Web Services Registration Form to LawyerDoneDeal, an LDD representative will contact you to help you complete the AUA account registration process.
